All students are encouraged to achieve their best within a safe, supportive and engaging environment.

Positive whole school and community partnerships provide strong foundations for successful learning.

Our Values for the Whole School Community

Respect
Treat others fairly and politely
Individuals work together to achieve common and shared goals in a positive and supportive environment.

Acknowledgment and value others’ differences creating a feeling of self worth.

Responsibility
Make appropriate choices and be accountable for our own actions.
Acknowledging mistakes and use them as a positive learning experience.

Honesty
Being truthful promotes self respect and builds trusting relationships.
All relationships in the school community are built on honesty.

Care
Receiving and expecting fair treatment forms positive relationships.
Showing genuine interest and being thoughtful builds caring relationships.
Developing an understanding of the impact of our actions on the local and global environment.

Recognise when individuals need support and help.

Persistence
Staying focused to achieve your best.

Confidence
Take risks and ‘have a go’.
